

All Aboard for Avocados!

California Avocado Festival (Avofest) with Coastal Train Ride

Saturday, October 7, 2017

Holy Guacamole! Santa Barbara County is the third largest producer of avocados in North America, so it's no surprise we're headed to downtown Carpinteria for the 31st annual California Avocado Festival. First, we'll motorcoach to L.A.'s Union Station to board an Amtrak train for a relaxing scenic ride offering spectacular ocean views along the coast to Santa Barbara. Upon arrival in Santa Barbara, our motorcoach will transport us to Carpinteria for the festival which boasts a commercial marketplace, an arts & crafts venue, four entertainment stages and a food venue with creative avocado and guacamole dishes. Don't miss the Largest Avocado contest and the World's Largest Vat of Guacamole! Enjoy lunch on your own and ample time at leisure to explore the festival in downtown Carpinteria which also offers numerous boutiques. We will motorcoach home. Suggested: walking shoes. Required: when booking, provide full legal name as it appears on your driver's license or other government-issued identification that you will be presenting to Amtrak on the day of the tour.
