Nostalgia & Nibbles

Saturday, April 28, 2018

Journey with us down memory lane along the “Mother Road,” Route 66, to sites never taken before! See “Main Street of America.” We’ll head east to explore some of the ‘nostalgic nibbles’ that were made famous along this Route. In San Bernardino, visit the original site of McDonald’s. Now a Juan Pollo restaurant, the owner turned part of the building into a McDonald’s Museum. In historic Old Town Victorville, enjoy a docent-guided tour of the California Route 66 Museum, devoted to the westernmost portion of the historic highway. A fun and interactive museum full of nostalgia, complete with a 1950s-style diner booth, a VW Love Bus, a 1917 Model T Ford and more! Enjoy lunch at the new Cracker Barrel Old Country Store Restaurant, scheduled to open in early 2018! (lunch will be at an alternate location if there’s any delay in the opening). Enjoy an included sweet treat at the local favorite Logan’s Candies. And a final treat awaits at an authentic, old-fashioned parlor! Suggested: walking shoes
