

San Diego Festival of the ARTS & Food Faire

Saturday, June 10, 2017

Celebrating its 31st anniversary, the formerly named La Jolla Festival of the Arts has a new name and location at the Waterfront Park in downtown San Diego. Boasting an 830-foot long fountain, lush gardens and views of the San Diego bay-front and downtown skyline, festival venues don't get more picturesque than this. It is consistently one of the highest rated festivals in the U.S. Enjoy ample time at leisure to stroll the festival grounds in a joyous celebration of art, music and food, offered by nearly 200 artists and chefs. Admire the stunning paintings, sculptures, photography, glass, jewelry, ceramics, wood, fiber and mixed media from world-renowned artists. Enjoy live music and entertainment, a craft beer garden and bites from San Diego's top restaurants. This is not a street fair – rather, an elegant high-quality showcase of art and cuisine. In the afternoon, we'll cross the Coronado Bay Bridge, taking in the spectacular views of downtown before boarding the Coronado Ferry for a one-way cruise across the bay.
