

OLVERA STREET

Enjoy a day at El Pueblo de Los Angeles with historic walking tour
and visit to Avila Adobe

Thursday
May 2, 2024

Members $25

310.394.9871

MyActiveCenter.com

Join the Club for a day trip to El Pueblo de Los Angeles, also known as Olvera Street - the birthplace of Los Angeles and a must-visit Mexican marketplace.

Enjoy an included 50-minute historic walking tour of El Pueblo de Los Angeles conducted by Las Angelitas del Pueblo. Immerse yourself in the lively atmosphere where you can indulge in the delicious aroma of taquitos and tacos, listen to the vibrant sounds of mariachi music, and watch stunning Aztec and Mexican folkloric dancers celebrate Cinco de Mayo.

Step back in time and experience the rich history of Los Angeles at the Avila Adobe Museum. Built in 1818 by the city's mayor, Don Francisco Avila, this magnificent house is the oldest existing structure in the city. You'll see authentic artifacts and learn about the daily lives of the people who called this house home.

After, at your option, take a short stroll for a French Dipped Sandwich at Philippe The Original. Established in 1908 by Philippe Mathieu, this iconic restaurant is renowned for its creation of the French Dipped Sandwich - a sandwich dipped in flavorful au jus and served with a side of tangy mustard.

If you're looking for a memorable LA-day, sign up for this Day Tripper and savor some of the best of the city of Angels.

Depart: Santa Monica 9:30 am (Return 4:20 pm)

Baldwin Hills 10:05 am (Return 3:45pm)